

Galactic Medallion Redefines Space Tourism with Luxurious Tours at the Kennedy Space Center

Cape Canaveral, Florida – February 12, 2024 – Galactic Medallion, a trailblazer in luxury space tourism, proudly unveils its exclusive lineup of tours at Florida's iconic Space Coast. Designed to inspire and indulge, these meticulously curated experiences provide unparalleled access to NASA's Kennedy Space Center, blending the excitement of space exploration with the comfort of first-class amenities.

A Premier Space Tourism Experience

Galactic Medallion offers one-day and multi-day VIP tours tailored to thrill space enthusiasts and luxury travelers alike. Guests can choose from premium transportation options to start their adventure:

- Helicopter Transfers: Aboard EC-130 helicopters, offering a breathtaking aerial tour of the Space Coast en route to the Kennedy Space Center.
- Luxury Ground Transportation: Travel in style with options including private limousines, Mercedes Sprinters, luxury SUVs, and Tesla trucks.
- Do-It-Yourself Access: Guests can meet their concierge guide directly at the Kennedy Space Center for a self-driven experience.

Tour Highlights

- Signature 3-2-1 Lift-Off Tour: A single-day exploration featuring VIP access to restricted NASA areas, a private concierge guide, and gourmet dining experiences.
- Multi-Day Customized Adventures: Include space-themed hotel accommodations, interactive sessions with astronauts and NASA experts, and tours of off-site launch facilities.

Each itinerary offers access to awe-inspiring locations such as the Apollo-Saturn V Center, the Space Shuttle Atlantis exhibit, and SpaceX's Integration Facility.

Engage with Icons of Space Exploration

Galactic Medallion enhances its tours by offering guests opportunities to meet industry legends like Mike D. Leinbach, NASA's final Shuttle Launch Director, and planetary scientist Kirby Runyon. These experts provide fascinating insights and behind-the-scenes stories of space exploration.

Luxury Meets Education

“Our goal is to provide a seamless blend of luxury and inspiration,” said Elizabeth Schneider, Founder and CEO of Galactic Medallion. “We invite our guests to step into the story of space exploration and create unforgettable memories that bridge the past, present, and future of humanity’s journey to the stars.”

Personalized Experiences for Every Guest

Tours are designed to meet the preferences of every traveler, with options to enhance the experience through:

- Private guided tours of NASA facilities.
- Specialty dining events overlooking iconic space landmarks.
- Custom activities like meeting space industry professionals.
